Host a Pro Rider

For those who live in Prescott, Grand Junction or Carson City, get an inside look at the life of a professional mountain biker by volunteering to be a weekend host.

Not only will hosts gain a unique perspective of how these highly disciplined athletes live, but the athletes will gain a lot of local knowledge from their hosts. It's a win-win situation for both host and rider, and will take some of the pressure off local hotels that often fill to capacity on event weekend.

Fuel the Appetite in Prescott

Whether working up an appetite on the trail or simply spectating with something delicious in hand, downtown Prescott has a lot of amazing food options within walking distance of Whiskey Row.

For a complete list of restaurant options from Southwestern cuisine to international flavor, Visit Prescott has all the details.

Some personal favorites of ours include The Barley Hound, El Gato Azul, and the Raven Cafe. Bon Appétit!
