Whiskey Off-Road Dedicated To Zap Espinoza

Zapata "Zap" Espinoza is one of the most identifiable figures in the history of mountain biking, thanks to his punk rock style sporting numerous earrings, signature stretched left earlobe piercing, pointy sideburns and bold wardrobe.

His outspoken and opinionated demeanor as editor of Mountain Bike Action (MBA) during the heyday of the sport between 1986 and 1993 was just as bold. As a 1995 Mountain Bike Hall of Fame inductee, Zap was the early voice of mountain biking that helped take the sport to rock star status.

Although he is now editor-in-chief of Road Bike Action, when asked about the difference between mountain bikers and roadies, Zap was quick to respond.

"Roadies are so uptight it's ridiculous."

Raise a glass to Zap at the Whiskey Off-Road Friday, 8pm at the Barley Hound.

New Trails for the Grand Junction Off-Road

In order to deliver maximum enjoyment for all riders of the Grand Junction Off-Road, we've made some course enhancements for 2017.

Replacing Andy's Trail, Eagle's Tail Trail and Pet E Kes trail, all three distance options will include a new singletrack route featuring Gunny Loop, Holy Bucket to Coyote Ridge, Ali Ali Loop to Ali Alley, Curt's Lane and Curt's down to lower Hop Skip and Jump and Noreaster. Although still a challenging route, this new course routing will be safer for all participants while showing off local favorite singletracks in the Lunch Loops trail network.
